*Deaconess Henderson Hospital
Chief Administrative Officer*

MEET LINDA WHITE:

Linda has worked as an administrator at Deaconess since 1985, serving as president and CEO of the Deaconess Health System for 15 years. She currently holds two positions, chief administrative officer of Deaconess Henderson Hospital (formerly Methodist Hospital) and executive director of the Deaconess Foundation.

Linda earned a Bachelor of Science degree in mathematics from Indiana State University, completed the Deaconess School of Nursing diploma program, and received a Bachelor of Science degree in Nursing from the University of Evansville. She later earned a master's of business administration degree from UE and designation as a Fellow in the American College of Healthcare Executives.

The Southwest Indiana Chamber named Linda as the city's 2001 Athena Award recipient and she was later inducted into the Evansville Regional Business Hall of Fame. Her long list of civic and community involvement includes serving on the board of directors for Leadership Evansville, Operation City Beautiful, the Ark Crisis Nursery, and Junior League of Evansville. She is a past president of the board of directors for the Boys and Girls Club of Evansville and the Evansville Sports Corporation. She is a member of the Board of Trustees of Rose-Hulman Institute of Technology and the University of Evansville. Membership also includes the Old National Bancorp Board of Directors and the Indiana Economic Development Committee. Past involvement has included board memberships with the YWCA, the United Way of Southwestern Indiana, the Metropolitan Evansville Chamber of Commerce and the American Heart Association.
