

Jared Florence, CPA

Deaconess Hospital, Inc.
Vice President Business Development

Jared came to Deaconess in 2012 as the director of Business Development and was promoted to vice president Business Development in 2016. Prior to joining Deaconess, Jared was executive director of Finance and Business Development for St. Mary's Health (now Ascension) and has over 15 years of health care experience. In his current role, Jared is responsible for regional development, hospital partnerships and affiliations, post-acute care, cancer services and marketing.

Jared is a graduate of the University of Southern Indiana, and holds a bachelor of science degree in accounting and a master's degree in business administration. He received his Certificate of Public Accountancy from the State of Indiana in 1999, and began his career in public accounting at Harding, Shymanski & Company.

ABOUT DEACONESS HEALTH SYSTEM:

Deaconess Health System is a premiere provider of health care services in southwestern Indiana, western Kentucky and southeastern Illinois. The system - based in Evansville, Indiana - includes six hospitals located in southern Indiana: Deaconess Hospital, an acute care facility; The Women's Hospital, serving the needs of women and infants; Deaconess Gateway Hospital, an acute care facility; Deaconess Cross Pointe, a behavioral health hospital; The Heart Hospital at Deaconess Gateway, focusing solely on providing leading-edge inpatient and outpatient heart care services; and HealthSouth Deaconess Rehabilitation Hospital, specializing in comprehensive medical rehabilitation. Also included in the system are a freestanding cancer center, a health system and physician owned managed care network of preferred hospitals and doctors, two ambulatory surgery centers, 21 ambulatory care sites, two urgent care facilities and multiple partnerships with other health care providers.