

Tissue Culture

Collection Procedure

- Collect tissue aseptically. Include material from both the center and the edge of the lesion.
- Place the specimen in a sterile container.
- Transport immediately to the laboratory at ambient temperature.
- For virology cultures, transport at 2-8°C in viral transport media (Universal Transport Media).
- Do not submit tissue in formalin.

Note: Tissue collection is an invasive procedure and requires surgery by a trained physician.